

JEKYLL & HYDE

When Dr Jekyll created the potion that would give life to Mr Hyde he didn't realise that he was putting his life (1. at serious _____ risk)

In his laboratory, always kept (2. absolutely immaculate) _____, he had that (3. brilliant idea) _____ which would eventually lead to his own destruction.

Till the very end there was still (4. a very small possibility) _____ that the situation could be overturned but ultimately Jekyll (5. had to give in) _____, realizing that he would stay transformed as Hyde.

Can you think of any (6. conditions which provide an excuse) _____ for Jekyll's actions or do you deplore his choice?

Solutions:

- | | |
|---------------------|------------------------------|
| 1. in grave danger | 4. slim chance |
| 2. spotlessly clean | 5. bowed to pressure; |
| 3. stroke of genius | 6. extenuating circumstances |