

AN UNEXPECTED OUTCOME

The Morgans and the Collins (1. had a friendly relationship) _____ despite the (2. continuous loud sound) _____ made by the youngest of the Collins boys: as a child he had asked for a drum and (3. contrary to what they thought best) _____ they had indulged him. Now, ten years later, they regretted their choice bitterly!!!

Luckily, their neighbours had never lost their patience but now something was about to change: Mrs Morgan's mother was coming to live with them and the news (4. caused panic) _____ all around! How would she react to the enthusiastic drummer?

Two weeks later the two families couldn't believe their eyes: right from the start they noticed a special chemistry between the elderly lady and the rebellious teenager, and as time went on they realised that she was (5. something with a good effect) _____ in his life! He had lost his grandparents too soon so she filled a void he hadn't realised existed...

Solutions:

1. were on good terms
2. incessant noise
3. against their better judgement
4. sparked fears
5. a force for good
